Why is training for governing boards so important?

In an era where the long-lasting impact of the pandemic will be visible in our pupils, our staff and their families, governance will play a crucial role in the future development of schools more so now than ever before.

Governing the strategic recovery and future development of our schools will require high level understanding of the key issues so that complex decisions and logistical choices can be made. These key issues focus on wellbeing and resilience, quality of Education, financial sustainability and the expertise needed to support rapid recovery.

We know we will emerge from this difficult period with a better, bolder and more fulfilling way of schooling our children. This training programme will particularly address the insights and ideas that have emerged during this time.
