Reading Programmes

Empowering children to read with greater understanding, independence and enjoyment

Over the last decade, Hackney Education has pioneered an outstanding portfolio of reading and literacy programmes supporting staff and pupils across all key stages. Initially designed for Hackney schools, these acclaimed programmes are now trusted by primary schools, secondary schools, MATs and local authorities worldwide.

Schools who implement our programmes cultivate a school wide reading culture that enhances the quality and consistency of literacy and reading across their community.

- Daily Supported Reading (DSR) for KS1 is a classroom programme that helps children make accelerated progress by working with trained adults in small groups matched to their independent reading levels
- Destination Reader (DR) in KS2 is a pedagogical approach to teaching reading through engaging daily, structured sessions that support children to read with greater understanding, enjoyment and purpose
- The LIT programme for KS3 supports struggling learners to develop their reading and literacy skills and access the wider curriculum
- Reading Moderation for KS1/KS2 is an innovative package designed to support the moderation of reading across your school, academy trust and borough
- Reading Champions training supports your school in building a strong, pupil-led reading for pleasure culture by creating pupil leaders of reading. By training and empowering pupils to be Reading Champions, 'booktalk' becomes the norm, motivating a much wider group of children to read for pleasure

“The LIT Programme has been incredibly effective as an alternative Year 7 English curriculum for the students who need to ‘catch-up’. The Reciprocal Teaching approach ensures all students regularly rehearse and develop their reading skills. We have seen fantastic progress and would highly recommend the programme.”

"The INSET training Marie delivered was one of the most impactful sessions we've had. It was engaging, evidence-informed, and extremely well delivered, striking a thoughtful balance between scientific insight and practical, actionable strategies. Staff left with small, manageable changes they could immediately implement, and a clear understanding of the rationale behind them." Aoife O'Grady, Headteacher at Our Lady and St Joseph's Primary School
