OFSTED READINESS CHECK/ONE DAY REVIEW

Preparing your school for that all important Ofsted inspection

We will work with you to get you and your school Ofsted ready and relieve some of the stress that's associated with an Ofsted inspection.

Our experienced school leadership specialists, which consists of former Headteachers and Deputy Headteachers, can deliver a bespoke review of your school's leadership, management and teaching.

You will gain a fuller understanding of how your school is performing ensuring that you're able to prioritise areas that may need intervention or improvement in advance of your next inspection.

Whatever support you require, we can help.

BENEFITS TO SCHOOLS

We will provide two or three Leadership and Management Advisers, depending on the size of your school who will:

- guide you on how to improve teaching and learning and other strategies for improvement
- observe teaching, evaluate data and scrutinise planning and books
- match judgements for the key elements of the teaching profile
- provide verbal feedback on the day
- supply a comprehensive report, linked to the grade descriptors of the Ofsted framework, with clear areas to work on.

"Our schools partnership has worked closely with the Hackney School Improvement team over a number of years. We have found their expertise invaluable in ensuring that all three of our partner schools have undertaken very successful Ofsted inspections and achieved outcomes well above national averages."

Stephen Hall, Executive Headteacher, Viridis Schools Federation.
